

BEING BAPTIST HISTORY, IDENTITY & POLITY

Mar 14, 21, 28 | Apr 11, 18, 25

Tuesdays, 4:30 – 6:30 pm ET / 1:30 – 3:30 pm PT

Discover the historic roots of Baptist identity. Compare how the many different Baptist groups relate to one another. Explore how the distinctive convictions of Baptist identity shape our ways of being church together and in the world.

A 6-week certificate course on Baptist history, identity, and polity, designed for Baptist leaders seeking ordination or recognition of ordination credentials through an American Baptist Region.*

Facilitated by Rev. Rebecca Irwin-Diehl, Director of the ABHMS Center for Continuous Learning.

Featuring diverse guest voices, including Judson Press authors and local church pastors.

* Check with your Executive Minister to confirm the course meets your Region's ordination requirements.

Map the historic roots and ruptures of Baptist groups

Apply the Baptist distinctives in today's ministry contexts

Explore Baptist diversity in polity and practice

6-week Certificate Course
Just $199

REGISTER NOW!

ONLINE
MAR 14 – APR 25, 2023
ABHMS CENTER FOR CONTINUOUS LEARNING

1075 First Ave
King of Prussia, PA 19406
888.79.ABHMS
ccl.ministrelife.org